

Nonprofit organizations require professional service providers who understand the unique needs and challenges they face, such as specialized accounting principles, member requirements and needs, budgeting and grant requirements and unique tax laws and regulations. Veris' team of professionals have built their careers serving the nonprofit community.

Services we provide to the nonprofit community include:

- partial or full outsourcing of accounting or internal auditing
- special projects assistance involving accounting, finance or technology
- customized member surveys
- compilation of industry research data
- tax consulting

Nonprofit organizations are subject to unique tax laws and regulations and the professional staff of Veris has substantial experience in these matters. In addition to preparing federal and state information returns and unrelated business income tax returns, our tax services include:

- applications for exemption
- tax planning strategies
- effective use of for-profit subsidiaries
- creating and maintaining a related foundation
- unrelated business income issues

Veris has been active in the nonprofit community since our foundation. Our executives have served in leadership roles in the following organizations:

- American Society of Association Executives (ASAE)
- Center for Association Leadership (formerly the GWSAE Foundation)
- Finance & Administration Roundtable (FAR)
- Association Foundation Group (AFG)

The professionals at Veris have long recognized the unique nature of tax-exempt organizations.

EXPERTISE / expertees / n. thorough competence and requisite ability or qualities